

A stone archway with two towers and a central crest, with a banner across it. The archway is made of dark stone and has two large towers on either side, each with a domed top. In the center, there is a crest featuring a red shield with a white castle and a blue lion. A white banner with orange and black text is stretched across the archway. The banner reads "FREIE FLUSSZONE SÜDERELBE" in large orange letters, and "HYPOTHETISCHE SCHLIESSUNG FÜR DIE BINNENSCHIFFFAHRT" in smaller black letters below it. The archway is set on a cobblestone path that leads to a bridge. To the right, there is a large green tree and a small sign. To the left, there is a metal railing and a view of a river.
